

Nicola Storr

Illustrator

Nicola Storr is an illustrator with over 20 years experience in the world of illustration. She's worked on a wide variety of illustration based projects from greetings cards, book design, soft toy development , set and character design for children's tv. Believing that drawing and character design can not only make you happy, but can also help to build a sense of achievement and self belief.

Nicky is passionate about art history and technique and always strives to deliver fun classes that readily involve everyone.

Nicky has worked as a freelance contributor to schools for a number of years and loves to bring her passion for drawing and flexing your imagination into every classroom.

<https://www.instagram.com/nicolourok/>

